"Jack Beckman is one of the greatest instructors, drivers and story tellers I know. He has so much to share with folks. From cancer survivor to World Funny Car Champ, he has lessons that can benefit everyone." – Frank Hawley.

"My relationship with Frank, which has evolved from student, to employee, to friend, has been instrumental in my success. Participating in these seminars with Frank is highly rewarding in two aspects: First, being able to educate and entertain the participants in a very personal way and, second, I never miss an opportunity to hear Frank impart his wisdom. I always look forward to his insightful method of research, interpretation and teaching." – Jack Beckman.
